Kiki joined American Savings Bank as a residential loan officer with three years of mortgage experience at a national lending company. Having been in the financial industry for much of her career, Kiki started in securities trading in Tokyo, eventually becoming a trader in Japanese government bond futures, future spreads and options in Hawaii.

Born in Japan, Kiki is fluent in both Japanese and English. Outside of work, she stays active through a number of activities including yoga, stand-up paddling, swimming, and dancing, while also enjoying wine tasting and traveling. Kiki also volunteers her time with the local Make-A-Wish organization.
