Misha recently joined the Home Loans team, having already been with American Savings Bank for more than 16 years – the past eight years serving as an assistant branch manager and branch manager. With her extensive experience in the banking industry and dedication to identifying her customers' unique financing needs, Misha is committed to helping her clients achieve their dreams of homeownership.

Originally from Seoul, Misha is fluent in Korean. When she's not working, she enjoys spending time with her family, traveling (especially to Seoul and Las Vegas!), and learning how to golf.
