Alan H. Miyasaki has more than 34 years of banking experience in Hawaii, including management positions in retail branch operations and mortgage lending. He specializes in the East Oahu market and works with a wide range of clientele that include the first time homebuyer to the sophisticated self-employed borrower or investor. Providing outstanding service and a consistently high level of client satisfaction are keys to his success in promoting repeat and new business.

Alan was born and raised on Maui and moved to Oahu after graduating from high school. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Hawaii at Manoa. He also is proficient in conversational Japanese.

Alan is an affiliate member of the Honolulu Board of Realtors and Kahala Business Association. During his free time he enjoys traveling, attending sake and wine tasting events, swimming and practicing yoga.
