Changes to Recurring External Transfers

Aloha,

American Savings Bank is getting ready to upgrade your digital banking experience. During this upgrade your recurring external transfers will be converted to the new system. However, your external transfer that was set to expire when reaching a threshold dollar amount, will need to be re-established. Please verify your recurring transfers in the Activity Center.

Set Up External Recurring Transfers

After the upgrade, please login to eBanking at www.asbhawaii.com and set up your recurring external transfers.

- To re-establish your duration transfer, go to Menu > Transactions > Add External Account and follow the instructions.
- After you have received and confirmed your "micro" deposits, your account will be verified.
- Go to Menu > Transactions > Transfer Money and select the accounts that you wish to transfer funds From and To using the drop-down menus.
- Enter the dollar amount and date to process the transaction.
- If you wish to setup a recurring transaction, click the checkbox Make this a recurring transaction.
 - Click on the question "How often should this transfer repeat?" You will see a list of frequency options to choose from
 - Enter Start Date and End Date
 - Click Transfer Funds button
- If successful, a screen with an overview of your transaction will appear. All funds transfers will appear in the Activity Center whether immediate or future dated. You can view them at this time or click Close and review at your convenience.
