The Business

Please complete the following questions using 1 or more complete sentences.

Why did you choose your company name?

Who does your business help? Be as specific as possible.	How does your business help? Be as specific as possible.
Example: Our recycling business can help kids by teaching them responsibility and helps our whole school by keeping the campus cleaner.	Example: Our business will help reduce waste at our school and landfill pollution. Also, earnings will go toward programs that host community cleanups. We can help buy bins, tools, and water for people who volunteer to do community clean ups since they do not get paid.

SWOT Analysis

Starting a business can be difficult but thinking about what’s happening inside and outside of your business can make it easier.

A SWOT analysis can help you see what's going well, what needs fixing, chances to grow, and things that might cause trouble in the future.

Complete the SWOT Analysis to identify 2 strengths, 2 weaknesses, 2 opportunities and 2 threats. Be sure to think about your competitors.

Examples of each regarding a recycling business have been included below.

Strengths	Weaknesses	Opportunities	Threats
What is your business good at?	What could be better about the way your business works?	How could you grow your business?	What may make things harder for your business in the future?
Helps students learn real-life money and business skills in class.	Sorting and putting recyclables in the right spot can take a long time if you don't know how to do it.	We can grow by adding composting and other ways to cut down on trash.	The school could decide to teach about different businesses instead of ours.

Marketing Plan

A marketing plan helps a business share its products or services with people who might want to buy them. It's like a roadmap that shows how to tell others about what you're selling, making sure the right people hear about it and want to try it. Without a marketing plan, it would be harder for people to know your business exists!

So, now that you've developed your product or service, let's figure out how to share it with the world using the 5 Ps of Marketing:

P roduct (or service)	P rice	P lace	P romotion	P eople
What are you selling that people want or need?	How much will it cost?	Where can people get it?	How will you advertise and spread the word?	Who will help create, sell or support your product or service?

Video Pitch

A video pitch is a large part of a business's marketing plan. Your 2-minute video pitch should:

- 1) Clearly explain your product or service
- 2) Show your passion
- 3) Inspire your audience.

Below are the 5 elements of a Great PITCH:

	What it Stands For	What it Means
P	Problem Solver	Show how your product or service solves a real problem.
I	Inspire Action	Share your vision and invite others to be part of it.
T	Tailor It to the Audience	Use stories, examples or emotions your audience can relate to.
C	Concise	Keep your message focused and to the point.
H	Heart	Show your passion! End with a powerful call to action in the final 20 seconds.

Refer to your Video Pitch Outline for the guidelines on how to create a complete video pitch.

Figure out what items you will need to make your product/service for one year and how much each item costs.
